PUBLIC COMMENT: Sara Ingram and Lindy Ellis, members of the Town of Lingle Tree Board, addressed the council. They reported that an Arbor Day event will take place April 28, 2025 at the Old Cemetery. Two trees have been purchased for $850.00 and will be planted with the assistance of the 4th grade class. The board plans to purchase mosquito traps and place throughout town and urges residents to also purchase and place mosquito traps on their properties. Another event proposed by the board is “Yard of the Week.” Various yards will be deemed “Yard of the Week” throughout the lawn season. At the end of the season all the weekly winners will be entered into a drawing and 1st 2nd and 3rd place winners will be drawn and receive a monetary prize that is yet to be determined. The event is in the developmental stage.

Lindy Ellis updated the town on the funds donated for the beautification of Lingle. Flower pots have been purchased and placed in town and will have flowers planted in them as the weather allows. She also reported on the All School Reunion scheduled to take place June 28, 2025. The Storywalk program is in the process of being updated in the park and the library is searching for someone to maintain the project in Lingle.

POLICE ITEMS: PC Andrews reported: The 8th grade class was involved in an event that introduced them to various law enforcement officials and they took part in a mock trial; PC Andrews is active in juvenile court, monitoring traffic and investigating suspicious activity.

LEGAL ITEMS: TA Barnes reported: She has reviewed the MoU submitted by Goshen County IT for their services. As requested by council she reviewed the terms of the MoU with the council.

MAINTENANCE ITEMS: TS Dailey reported: The backhoe tires have been received and installed; Pool filter parts have been ordered; General maintenance is being performed throughout town; A bid for the construction of a steel building at the proposed Lingle transfer station has been received by Craig McComie of the Wyoming DEQ. He has submitted it for approval by the State; Interviews were conducted for summer maintenance help and TS Dailey suggested that Lucas Ingram be hired for the summer part time position. The council agreed by consensus to hire Lucas Ingram.

LVFD ITEMS: CM Lambert reported: Two ambulance calls and four fire calls last month; The annual Easter Egg Hunt will take place at 1:00 PM April 12, 2025 at Whipple Park.
